DAILY NEVADA STATE JOURNAL

WASHOE COUNTY OFFICIAL PRESS

C. C. POWNING..EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR

THURSDAY..... MAY 11, 1876.

For President of the United States:

B. H. BRISTOW,

SUBJECT TO THE DECISION OF THE

REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION

A LIE NAILED.

A Washington dispatch says that a statement is published to the effect that Bristow has suspended proceedings against John Buckner, who was Collector of Internal Revenue at Louisville and a defaulter in $100,000, because Miles Foster, father of Mrs. Bristow, who died recently, leaving Mrs. Bristow a handsome legacy, is on the bond of the defaulter. Upon this subject the Treasury records show that John F. Buckner has been for several years past a Collector of Internal Revenue for the Fifth district of Kentucky. He is not a defaulter for $100,000 nor any sum, but during the Summer his then cashier, Jackson, robbed him of $65,300 in Government moneys Jackson subsequently committed suicide. The loss was discovered at Bristow's office before it was known at Louisville. All of Buckner's bonds are on file in the Treasury here and an examination of them show that the late Mr. Foster was never on any of them. The loss is abundantly secured to the Government by the Collector's bond of $150,000 and sureties which are worth more than $1,000,000. Buckner has now a petition for relief before the House of Representatives indorsed by citizens of Kentucky, without regard to party.

SPEAKING of California politics, the Enterprise thus truthfully remarks: The party which nominates the best candidate will carry California by a small majority. The Republican majority ought to be about 5,000. But this is about neutralized by the treachery of the Central Pacific owners. There are, however, 5,000 or 6,000 men in California who will, if they can, vote for the best man regardless of politics. With Tilden on the Democratic ticket, and Morton, for instance, on the Republican ticket he would carry the State by 2,000 or 3,000. With Bristow on the Republican ticket he would carry the State by 6,000 or 8,000 over any candidate the Democracy might name.

THE annual meeting of the stockholders of the Humboldt D. A. M. & M. Society came off at the Centennial Hall, in Winnemucca, Saturday, May 6. Quite a respectable number of persons, representing the paid up capital stock of the society, were present. Elaborate reports from the Secretary and Treasurer were read and accepted; after which a new Board of Trustees, eleven in number, was elected, as follows: A. Wise, Edward Vanderlip, James Manning, J. O. Ivory, J. H. Job, C. C. Biles, L. L. Richard, John Guthrie, C. Kemler, P. W. Johnson and C. Chenoweth.

THE Central Pacific Railroad Company have backed a little from their decree refusing trade dollars at more than ninety cents, and have issued the following proclamation to agents and conductors: "Hereafter accept trade dollars and greenbacks only at their market value, always remitting them to this office at the value at which you received them. Should you be obliged to pay them out in making change, you must not pay them for more than their market value."

A VERY rich silver lode has been discovered in Mariposa county, Cal., a few miles south of Hornitos, the ore from which assays $1,200 per ton silver and $9 gold. It was discovered by a Prussian butcher named Riebe, while driving cattle.

MRS. HAMILTON FISH, a Knickerbocker, and the leading lady in the Cabinet, when the shobby nobodies turned their backs upon the fortunate Treasury girl who married Senator Christiancy, called immediately.

STATE NEWS.

The Silver City Reporter will hereafter be issued but three times a week.

The Carson river, which was booming during the early part of last week is now quietly receding.

The Carson Appeal has been enlarged and otherwise greatly improved. A move in the right direction.

The regular Summer routine of drill has commenced at Camp McDermitt and the dust made thereby creates an excessive thirst, which has raised the price of "liquid corn" considerably.

The Trustees of the H. D. A. M. & M. Society have elected the following officers for the ensuing year; President, A. Wise; Vice President, J. O. Ivory; Secretary, J. H. Job; Treasurer, Ed. Vanderbilt. C. C. Biles and L. L. Rickard were elected a committee to see to the grounds of the society.

The San Francisco Sulphur Mining Company which incorporated on the McWorthy Sulphur mine near Rabbit Hole Springs, are now working the sulphur beds systematically. The Refining Works are in full blast, and turn out on an average five tons of brimstone daily. This is hauled by teams to the Humboldt House, from which place three cars a week are shipped to San Francisco.

The Eureka Democratic Convention last Saturday elected Richard Ryland, S B. Wyman, J. C. Lockwood, Geo. W. Cassidy, A. M. Hillhouse, D. J. J. McLaughlin and M. G. Cavanaugh delegates to the State Convention at Carson. The delegates were instructed to support no persons for delegates to the St. Louis Convention who are not actual residents of the State.

The stage route from Winnumucca to Silver and from McDermitt to Cañon City will be closed, in all probability, by the 15th of this month as the Postmaster-General considers that one route (that by Kelton) is sufficient for efficient postal service and that a large retrenchment is necessary to meet current expenses, and establish more necessary routes.

LATEST NEWS ITEMS.

The brokers of New York city are buying up the new silver coin and shipping it to San Francisco.

John Roach, the shipbuilder, Tuesday made a manly statement before the Navy Yard Committee.

Rubenstein, the murderer of the girl Sarah Alexander, died in a New York jail yesterday.

Belknap has been indicted by a Grand Jury in the District of Columbia.

The New York Times says Judge Davis is dead as a Presidential candidate.

Major Alexander Macomb died in his chair in New York Monday night.

The case of Miller alias Woodruff was continued again Tuesday.

The direct cables are again in working order.

The Salonica outrage is liable to lead to tremendous results. It seems the French and German Consuls were dragged into a moque and beaten to death. All the "Great Powers" are sending their battle ships to Salonica, and the dispatches foreshadow that this killing of the two Consuls may be the destruction of Turkey as a nation of the earth.

Maurice Bosqui has been indicted in Eureka, Cal., for the robbing of a paymaster's clerk in Northern California last week.

John Lyman, of Virginia City, who is now in prison, the champion wife-beater of the world, has been in the habit of beating his wife every night for seven or eight months. According to the testimony, no other cause existed for this than his persistent demand to her and her constant refusal to make over her property to him. The reason why she did not seek for a divorce from him was because she was a Catholic, and that church does not tolerate divorces. To free herself from this monster she killed herself. If he had not been suddenly taken away from Virginia he would have been lynched, so strong was the feeling against him.

BOTH Houses of Congress have adjourned over till Friday next. All legislative business is entirely suspended and the Capital is pretty generally deserted for the Centennial Exhibition.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

EASTERN DISPATCHES.

Centennial Matters.

PHILADELPHIA, May 10.

To-day being a legal holiday in this State, all places of business in this city are closed, bunting is displayed in profusion and to-night there is to be a grand illumination. The entrances to the Exhibition were promptly opened at 9 A. M. Since that hour there has been a continual jam. The clouds, which had up to 7 A. M. been very threatening, have now entirely disappeared, and the indications are that the day will be warm. The Foreign Commissioners and other distinguished visitors and guests, are being seated with very little confusion. Their entrance being effected through the main exhibition hall which will remain closed to the general public until noon. The ceremonies opened at 10:15, the national airs of all nations being performed by a large orchestra. It is estimated that 5,000 people are on the grounds and the populace is still pressing in. Every available spot in the neighborhood of the grand stand in front of Memorial Hall is occupied by an impatient crowd who are awaiting the arrival of President Grant, who has just been escorted to the entrance by the military.

At 11:30 A. M. Dom Pedro arrived and was escorted to his seat by General Hawley. At 10:45 General Phil. Sheridan and wife passed over from the main building to the stand in front of Memorial Hall. This was during the rendition of the national airs, and he was greeted with great applause, which he gracefully acknowledged. He was closely followed by Hon. J. G. Blaine and Senator Jones and wife of Nevada. At 10:55 the President entered through Memorial Hall, and was conducted to a seat on the front of the platfrom. Governor Hartranft, General Hawley and Hon. D. J. Morrill occupied seats on his left, while Messrs. John Welch and Goshorn were on his right. Considerable amusement was caused by the sudden appearance of Fred Douglas, who had by some mischance worked his way through the crowd and was helped over the ropes by the officers and conducted to a seat on a platform. He was greeted with cheers. At 11:30 Wagner's Centennial Inauguration March was performed by the orchestra, at the conclusion of which Bishop Simpson offered up a prayer. During the rendition of this the majority of the vast assemblage stood with uncovered heads.

Why the Consuls were Murdered—Improving and Dying.

NEW YORK, May 10.

A Paris special gives some incidents of the recent Salonica riot. It appears that Mr. Lazzaro, the Crown-Agent, interfered at the railroad station to rescue a young Christian girl from a band of Mussulmans who were forcing her to a mosque. She screamed for assistance and Lazzaro conveyed her to the U. S. Consulate in his carriage. The house was immediately surrounded by a mob. The German and French Consuls coming upon the scene, were cruelly beaten to death with benches and iron bars. The American Consul was saved by the military, who were ordered on duty by the Governor when he was informed of the state of affairs by the United States Consul.

Vanderbilt is improving. Judge Dowling cannot live the day through.

Riot Imminent.

CHICAGO, May 10.

Three hundred brick-makers are on a strike in the southwestern part of the city, and a riot is imminent. The crowd is increasing and has been reinforced by the striking lumbermen. All are armed with pistols and clubs and greatly excited. Two hundred policemen are on the ground, and it is now reported that the First Regiment has been ordered out.

WESTERN DISPATCHES.

Dividend Declared—Water Supply.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 10.

The Water Commissioners, under the Rodger's bill, met to-day to hear propositions for the purchase of water rights for the use of the city. Propositions were received from the owners of Lake Merced, of some of the Spring Valley sources of supply, Clear lake, McGregory, Tahoe, Amador and Blue Lakes, all of which will be examined by the Commissioners and a report submitted on the completion of such examination.

The Northern Belle Mining Company to-day declared a dividend of $1 per share, payable on the 15th instant.

Four Millionaires.

Mr. Piper of California, in a speech delivered in House of Representatives, illustrated in a forcible manner the injustice of subsidizing corporations, by a review of the legislation for the benefit of the Central Pacific Railroad Company, and its results. This company, originally chartered to construct a line of railroad from the Pacific coast to the eastern boundary of California, was afterward authorized by Congress to continue its line through the Territories and States intervening to the Missouri river. Subsequently the Western Pacific, the San Joaquin Valley and the San Francisco, Oakland, Alameda roads were consolidated with the Central Pacific, the Directors of which, in 1870, also securing the control of the Southern Pacific Railroad, a corporation formed by the consolidation of four other railroad companies. In building the Central Pacific road, a majority of the directors formed themselves into a company like the Credit Mobiler, called the Contract and Finance company, and contracting with themselves fraudulently secured immense profits in constructing the line. By such sharp practice a few speculators managed to absorb the proceeds of all the subsidies, and now the Central Pacific road is mainly owned by four men, Leland Stanford, C. P. Huntington, Mark Hopkins, and Charles Crocker, these four men also own the controlling interest—probably three-fourths—of the Southern Pacific road. The actual costs and equipments of the former road are estimated at over $140,000,000, while it claims public lands under the grant from Congress worth over 29,000,000 and owns real estate in San Francisco, Oakland and Sacramento worth $7,750,000 exclusive of improvements. Mr. Piper says that it is doubtful if the four men who now own nearly the whole lot of this collossal property were worth in the aggregate more than $150,000 when they embarked in the railroad business; but now after twelve or thirteen years, the aggregate wealth amounts to as many millions as they then possessed thousands. These are the men, it should be remembered, for whom the taxpayers of the United States are yearly compelled to pay the interest upon over $27,000,000 of their bonds which were kindly guaranteed by Congress. The company now owes the United States for bonds, over $39 000,000, including $11,414,685 unpaid interest. In return for this extravagant bounty of Congress to the handful of men who own this road, the line has been managed so as to be an instrument of oppression to the people, while its money power has been persistently used to influence State and National legislative bodies, control elections, and debauch public morality. The history of the Central Pacific subsidy should be an effectual warning against any further tolerance of schemes to private emolument urged upon the pretence of effecting a public good.—N. Y. Sun.

PERSONAL.—Mr. S. H. Goddard, of Virginia, Mr. Geo. Gillson, and Mr. P. H. Mulcahy, of Carson, spent yesterday in Reno. These gentlemen are prominent members of the Order of Knights of Pythias, and well known good citizens of our State. Their visit here was to pay their respects to the Supreme Chancellor, K. of P.

THE Mexican War Veterans will remember the call to meet in Carson on the 15th. Boys, the ranks are rapidly thinning out, and each roll call finds you less and less. Go to the meeting, talk over the proposed visit to the Centennial and of old times, when together you compelled Santa Anna to yield a valuable State to the Stars and Stripes.

MCGINLEY.—The McGinley troupe are performing in the section of country contiguous to Fort Independence. They are traveling under the name of the Italian Opera Troupe. The troupe is meeting with good success.

ISSAAC BARNETT returned from below yesterday morning. He brought up a large assortment of the latest styles of Spring and Summer goods.

DISTINGUISHED VISITOR.—We have had in our midst a gentleman whom many of our citizens delighted to honor. Mr. Davis, Supreme Chancellor of the Knights of Pythias, an order which boasts that all its members are promptly cared for, pecuniarily and otherwise, when sick or in distress; pay a respectful and reverend tribute to its deceased members, watch over the widows and orphans, and adore the one true and living God, is and always has been a faithful exponent of these Pythian principles. His visit to this Coast, while purely for the benefit of the Order, will not prevent him from gaining a knowledge of our wonderful climate, our prolific soil, our vast mineral resources, and observe all the beautiful sights which Nature has so lavishly bestowed upon us. He will carry back with him to his mountain home in Nashua, New Hampshire, a fund of information which will be alike interesting and instructive to those New England folks who are hardly aware that Nevada and California are States of this Union. We like to have men of so much prominence and intelligence visit the Coast. Their excursions must certainly redound to our credit. Mr. Davis will visit the Comstock, Carson, Lake Tahoe, and in California will be taken in charge by Knights, and shown all the objects of interest in that much favored land.

HE was a grease extractor last night; and held forth in the usual place in front of Barnett's. Before him came a patent medicine man, and previous to his advent, it was one of those abominable corn doctors, who followed in the wake of a glass-cutter. If the signs of the times are correct the next will be a pen peddler, and then an ink eraser in company with a stencil fraud. The season will then close.

ON TIME.—Dick Allen came up from below yesterday to take his horses off the ranch and get old Overland Pat and the others ready for our Fair. He has a couple of new runners, and says they will be along in a few days. Dick's stable ought to corral a few dollars this year.

TIN MINE.—A body of ore has been discovered in Peavine mountain which proves beyond question that Washoe county will have a tin mine. Sulphur, gold, silver, coal, cinnabar and now tin. What next, we wonder.

ALL of the young misses who called upon Barnett & Bro. yesterday received a present of a parasol each. Eight dozen were thus disposed of. Barnett means business, and now is thoroughly aroused.

RAISE HER RILEY!—Chamberlain will soon commence making the upper portion of his hotel a full story in hight, and all the rooms are to be hard finished. These little improvements will cost him about $2,600.

ANOTHER new locomotive for the Central Pacific, making the fifth in a week, passed through town yesterday. It was number 208 and was a ten-wheeler. It is intended for the freight trains.

I. D. CROSS advertises a house for sale. It is in a splendid location, and is suitable for a boarding and lodging house. For particulars inquire at his residence on Plaza street.

IT is nearly time the prisoners were being worked on the streets. Some of them are in a shameful condition, and the Road Supervisor ought to have them cleaned up.

GREEN.—The trees around town are very "green." A few more days of warm weather and the foliage will be refreshing to the eye.

SPECIAL MEETING.—Amity Lodge, K. of P. held a special meeting last evening, and listened to able addresses from the Supreme Chancellor and others.

CHERRIES have made their appearance in our markets. They were retailing yesterday at five bits a pound. A good many bought them even at that price, just to taste the first of the season.

A narrow-gauge, turtle-back locomotive went through town yesterday headed toward the setting sun. It was all piled together—cab, tank and boiler being built all in one.

LED ASTRAY.—The Amy Stone troupe closed their engagement in this place last night, on which occasion the play of the above name was presented. All of the performers acquitted themselves creditably. The troupe perform in Carson to-night, and may favor us once more before they go East.

BEAUTIFUL BOQUETS.—Some very fine boquets are now being brought here from California. They are eagerly sought after.

OUR markets are well supplied with strawberries and cherries; and rhubarb, lettuce, peas, cucumbers, etc.

THE new JOURNAL office will be two-story. The lower one will be for rent. Applications can now be made.

Malicious Kissing.

A Memphis justice of the peace has had before him as queer a case as has ever been set down in the annals of the law. It was a case of malicious kissing, characterized on the warrant of arrest as conduct tending to provoke a breach of the peace. The kisser was Ella Daily, a girl deeply stained with the tan of Africa, and the kissed was Charles Glosson, also of African descent. Charles explained to the Court that he did not object to judicious kissing as a general rule—in fact it was not an unpleasant ceremony, time and place and opportunity permitting, but he did object to Ella's persisting in kissing him in the presence of his wife. This was not approved of by his wife, and made her personally very abusive to him. It was also very expensive for him to replace the broken furniture and crockery which said wife made over his head. Ella Daily had a spite against him, and she was paying him in malicious kisses, constantly disturbing the peace between himself and wife. He was tired of the malice so expressed by Ella, and had her arrested to see if she could not be restrained. The Justice didn't know what to do with such a case, as the law had not contemplated such an offense as malicious kissing. He suspended judgement and turned Ella loose on good behavior. So the case isn't settled and probably never will be. Ella remarked that she was going to have more fun out of that nigger yet. He said he'd rather she'd hit him with a brick any time than to kiss him with malice aforethought.

SOUTHERN PACIFIC RAILROAD.—Work on the the Southern Pacific Railroad continues to be pushed with an undiminished force. The unusual and long-continued rains rendered progress difficult, except in the tunnels, nine of which are now complete, and work in all the others is going on well. The long tunnel, under the San Fernando mountain, is finished for 4,408 feet, leaving 2,542 feet to be taken out. At the rate of 24 feet per day (being four feet on each of the 6 faces,) it will require until about the first of July to complete the work. This being the measure of progress on the line between San Francisco and Los Angeles, communication by rail between the two cities may reasonably be expected in July next. On the line from and South of Los Angeles, to the crossing of the Colorado river at Fort Yuma, the grade is complete for 150 miles; the track is laid 134 miles, and is in regular operation to "Seven Palms," where a daily four-horse stage connects to Prescott, Tucson and all points in Arizona. As the track extends to available points for stage and water stations, staging is being shortened. The time is not distant—it will certainly be within the year 1876—when travelers may go from San Francisco to Fort Yuma, by way of Los Angeles, in thirty-six hours, all the way by rail.

CARSON POST OFFICE.—The Appeal furnishes some news about the above named office. It says:

The Carson Postoffice is what is known as a distributing office. All the mails for Southern Nevada have to be made up here. The work to be performed in this office aggregates more than any other Postoffice in the State in consequence of this extra labor. But the Government only pays our Postmaster $2,300 and allows about half pay for a clerk. The Virginia Postoffice pays a salary to its Postmaster of $2,600 and allows full pay for four clerks. The Government pays for office rent there; but compels the Postmaster here to get it the best he may. There is really no justice in this discrepancy; but it is the way the Postoffice Department has of dealing, and there is no appeal from it. Fred Turner made an appeal from paying rent and got removed. Now Winnie goes out and he says he is not sorry. He says he wonders that any man that can make $5 a day outside of it should want it, with all its cares, labors and responsibilities.

THE head of Chavez, lieutenant of the bandit Vasquez, passed through San Francisco on Saturday in the hands of his vanquisher, who was en route to Sacramento to claim the reward of $5,000 offered for the trophy.

A QUARREL of fifteen years' standing between Horace Maine and Amasa M. Maine, brothers, so serious that they had not spoken during all that time, was recently settled in Norwich, Connecticut, by the intervention of Judge Foster. A suit brought by Horace to recover $2,000 from his brother for slander was pending. The evidence was all in, and the lawyers were about to "sum up," when the Judge called the plaintiff and defendant aside, and, after a consultation, during which the three mingled their tears, it was agreed that the matter should be referred to the lawyers and the Judge. Both brothers finally signed an agreement to end the suit where it was, and also to live as brothers should.

(No. 593.)

IN THE U. S. LAND OFFICE, IN THE District of Carson City, Nevada—The people of the United States to William J. Plumer, Greeting:

You are hereby summoned to appear before me, at my office, in Carson City, on the twelfth day of June, A. D. 1876, at 11 o'clock, A. To the United States Marshal, or Deputized Citizen—Greeting: Make service and return hereof. Given under my hand this third day of May, A. D. 1876. A. WAITZ,
